Faculty Governance and Representation in the UNC System

North Carolina General Assembly:
(Legislature) State House and Senate; use the website to follow chamber activity, meetings, and issues before the General Assembly.
http://www.ncleg.net/

The UNC Board of Governors (BOG) is the policy-making body charged with “the general determination, control, supervision, management, and governance” of the University of North Carolina system. Its 32 voting members are elected by the North Carolina General Assembly for four-year terms.
https://www.northcarolina.edu/content/leadership-and-policy

Appalachian State University
East Carolina University
Elizabeth City State University
Fayetteville State University
NC A&T State University
NC School of Science and Mathematics
North Carolina Central University
NC State University
UNC Asheville
UNC Chapel Hill
UNC Charlotte
UNC Greensboro
UNC Pembroke
UNC School of the Arts
UNC Wilmington
Western Carolina University
Winston-Salem State University

President of the UNC System reports to the BOG

UNC General Administration (GA) staff report to the President (and thus through the President to the BOG) and are responsible for working with campuses to implement policies approved by the BOG and regulations approved by the President of the UNC System

Chancellors of each university report to the President of the UNC System

North Carolina State University is a constituent institution of the University of North Carolina (UNC) system. According to The UNC Code, NC State shall have a board of trustees composed of thirteen persons: eight are elected by the UNC Board of Governors, four are appointed by the governor, and the remaining member is the president of the student government, ex officio.
The Board of Trustees (BOT) shall promote the sound development of its institution within the functions prescribed for it, helping it to serve the people of the state in a way that will complement the activities of the other institutions and aiding it to perform at a high level of excellence in every area of endeavor. Each board of trustees shall serve as an advisor to the Board of Governors on matters pertaining to its institution and shall also serve as advisor to the Chancellor concerning the management and development of the institution.
https://leadership.ncsu.edu/board-of-trustees/

June, 2015. J. Moore with contributions and review from D. Zonderman and K. Stewart