FAR Report

Culture—Athletics administration continually reinforces a culture of compliance in all areas of endeavor.

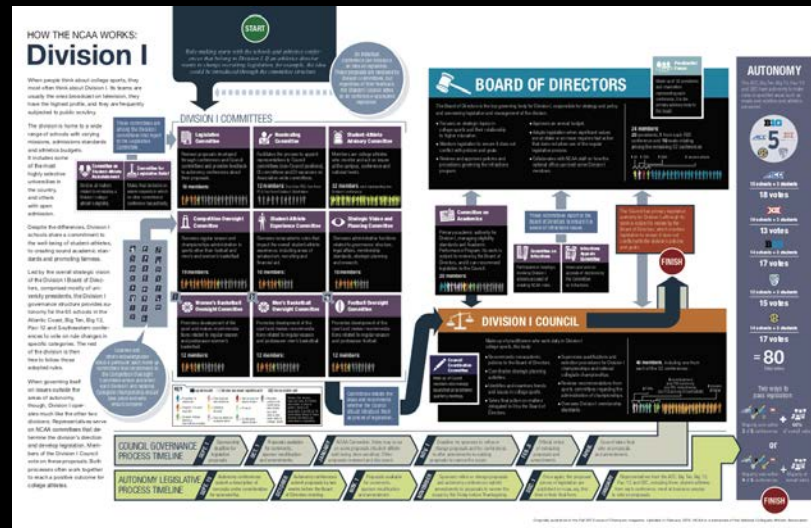

Academics—Student Athletes are achieving at the highest level. National and Conference level academic scholarships and recognition consistently received.

Equity—Consistent education and dedication to this principle.

NCAA and ACC Legislation (highlights)

- ACC Eliminated intra-conference rule for National Letters of Intent. (NLI)
- ACC Moved to only require a year-in-residence for intra-conference transfers.
- NCAA Established a transfer portal allowing to student to start the transfer process on their own.
- NCAA Added 5 Members to the Board of Governors from outside the membership.
- Currently, there are 76 legislative proposals that will be voted on in mid-April.

How the NCAA Works

Continuing Academic Eligibility Review

- Faculty Academic Committee conducts the review.
- All 530 student athletes reviewed 4 times a year.
- Email notification system alerts FAR of any changes in Student Athletes academic record.
- Integrates with final certification conducting by FAR.
- Most advanced system in the NCAA.

Soren Dahl, NC State Swimmer and 2018 winner of Jim Mckay Scholarship. Awarded at 2018 NCAA FARA National Meeting.
