

Helmut HergethAssociate Professor, Textile and Apparel Technology and Management
Wilson College of Textiles

Helmut H. Hergeth joined NC State's Wilson College of Textiles in 1991. Throughout his time at NC State, he has been active in committee work and faculty governance at the college and university level. From 2007 through 2011 and 2015 through 2019, Dr. Hergeth served as a Senator, and for two years as the Associate Chair to the Faculty Senate. During his time on the Faculty Senate, he served on the Academic Policy and on the Resources and Environment subcommittees as well as on the Faculty Senate Executive Committee.

Dr. Hergeth teaches and researches in the areas of business management for the textile industries, and he is actively engaged in study abroad projects together with the Poole College of Management and the Shelton Leadership Center. Prior to joining NC State University, he worked in the chemical fiber industry in Europe and North America.

Dr. Hergeth holds a BS in Textiles from NC State, and an MBA and PhD in Business and Economics from the Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität in Münster, Germany.